PROCLAMATION

Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day

WHEREAS: On this day, we remember the babies that were gone too soon from stillbirth, miscarriage, medical termination.

The goal is to honour the babies that have been lost due to unforeseen circumstances of pregnancy whether medical, stillbirth and/or miscarriage.

The purpose is to build awareness and to have a day of awareness, a day where we can honour and remember the babies without any barriers.

On October 15th, the residents of Brampton will gather and hold a vigil lighting in honour of the babies that families in Brampton have lost during a pregnancy or a live birth. A flag will be raised in honour of the babies who lost their lives too soon.

THEREFORE: I, Mayor Patrick Brown, on behalf of Brampton City Council, do hereby proclaim October 15, 2024 as “Pregnancy & Infant Loss Remembrance Day” in the City of Brampton.

Mayor Patrick Brown, City of Brampton
