PROCLAMATION

Bob Marley Day

WHEREAS: On February 6th, we honour the legacy of Robert (Bob) Nesta Marley on his birthday. Bob Marley was a Jamaican singer, musician, and songwriter and is considered as one of the pioneers of reggae.

He began his career with the Wailers and soon became known for his distinctive song writing and vocal style. Marley sang of love, peace and freedom.

He became one of the greatest ambassadors of peace the world has ever seen. He encouraged us to live in harmony, write our own destiny and stand up for what is right.

With a legendary and ever-lengthening list of accomplishments in both his life and music, Bob Marley advocated for social change. Today his music lives on and appeals to people of all cultures and guides them towards a united world - one people, one love.

THEREFORE: I, Mayor Patrick Brown, on behalf of Brampton City Council, do hereby proclaim February 6, 2024, as “Bob Marley Day” in the City of Brampton.

Mayor Patrick Brown, City of Brampton
